About my big sister

I think my big sister moves slowly. She moves slowly and she talks slow too. When she comes back from work she stretches the ending of words and says "Funyaaaa. Hun gry" and that makes my power go away as well. If she helps me draw Manga, she puts the wrong tone on. If I let her draw some supporting characters, she draws them with different perspectives for Takuya and Minoru. One day she said she wanted to do beta (painting/filling in the black part of Mangas) so I let her do it. Then she made Takuya's head Marimo-spherical mess! It was really a nuisance because she delayed the process. Oh well, please live a long life.

My Brother

My brother has paid an adult fare ever since he was an elementary school student and he was mistaken as a college student when he was in junior high because he was tall but I think spiritually he is really a little kid I think he is a weirdo because he does some weird stuff that we can't understand sometimes When he was in high school he was staying at home doing nothing, so I scolded him saying Why haven't you gone to school yet you'll be late!! then he scolded me back saying, I'm suspended from school!! I didn't know when he was suspended at all My brother's life is somewhere I don't know My brother is a security guard at night and when he had a job at Shinjyuku and was lost he was picked up by a guy

My brother told me that the person flirting with him looked like a host and was cool When he realized my brother was straight he left but my brother was picked up by 4 other guys that night

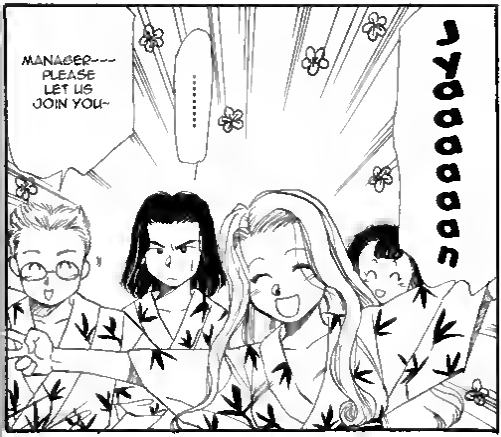
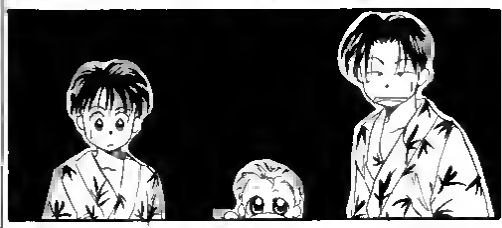
1/4 SPACE PART 5

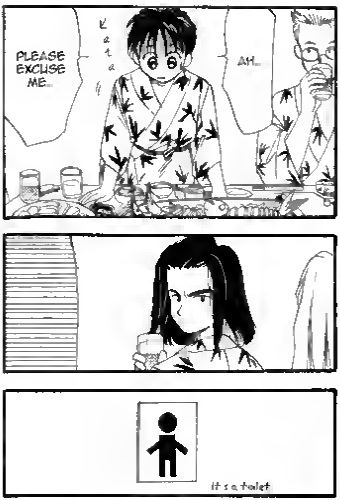
I wrote about my big sister and little brother without telling them, so I might get yelled at later. I even used their pictures without telling them. In the Athletic Festival story from book 3, there was a scene with Takuya running with his left hand and left leg forward together. Some of the readers pointed this out... so I fixed it. It's fun as well, too, though. Also there are a bunch of places I mistook earlier. Hee hee.

I heard one of my acquaintances bought a rabbit. I often received letters saying others want to have rabbits as well, but there's a note from me. Since rabbits have to clean their extended teeth, they will munch on the walls and/or pillars. So please have them in a (bigger) cage no matter what! When you let them out, you shouldn't take your eyes off them, ok? That's all.





* YOU CAN'T "SIT HERE"



SFX (everyone) cheers!

1/4 SPACE PART 6

No meaning I just wanted to draw an adult

I always worry about what to write in this 1/4 space. Let me see ...

It has been a year since "Baby and Me" was published, and I could publish the third comic book, so I'm kind of happy. I was talking with my manager if I could publish the third comic book within this year, and I accomplished it! Good good

By the way, I haven't seen any of my comic books in bookstores. I've only seen it in big bookstores. I am looking for it because I was asked to get it for my relatives, but I cannot find it. It's kind of weird that I look for my own books

By Marimo.

YUP!
YOU CANNOT PLAY WITH HIM BUT DO YOU WANT TO TALK TO HIM?
I CANNOT PLAY WITH BROTHER?
AFTER THAT, TADAOMI-SAN WAS COLD TOW- SO KIKUKO-CHAN.
